DENEYS REITZ ENGAGEMENT LETTER FOR U-ACT

2.6 VAT will be charged.

3. Deposit

We may from time to time, as appropriate, require you to pay reasonable amounts on account of anticipated disbursements. Any deposit held by us may, in the absence of an express written instruction from you to the contrary, be invested by us in a separate identified account with a registered bank or financial institution and the interest which may accrue in respect thereof will similarly be applied on account of disbursements.

4. Aborted Work and Termination of Relationship

4.1 Where work does not proceed to a conclusion or the mandate is terminated, we will charge all disbursements incurred by us in relation to the matter to such date.

4.2 Where work is transferred to other professional advisers, we will be entitled to recover all disbursements, including those related to the orderly termination and the transfer of such work

4.3 Our relationship with you may be terminated on any ground upon which an attorney/client relationship may terminate, including the ordinary ground of contact termination or any conflict of interest arising or where there is a breakdown of the professional relationship or where instructions given do not fall within the ambit of pro bono work or where instructions given relate to work in respect of which we don't generally offer legal services.

5. FICA

The firm is an accountable institution in terms of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act 2001. If your instruction relates to a matter which requires us to obtain prescribed information concerning you or your organisation we will provide you with an explanatory memorandum and the applicable forms. Deneys Reitz complies with the reporting obligations under FICA. Information communicated to us which is subject to legal professional privilege will remain confidential between us.

6. Limitation of Liability

6.1 Our liability for the aggregate of all claims against us by any client arising out of or in connection with each instruction in respect of any alleged breach of contract or alleged breach of a legal duty or fault or negligence on our part (collectively hereinafter referred to as "the claims") shall be limited to the amount of the indemnity provided by our
