Dear Mr Schumyn

Service Order - Registration as Public Benefit Organisation

We are pleased to confirm the arrangements for KPMG Services (Pty) Limited ("KPMG") to provide taxation and related services to Ubuntu Addiction Community Trust in connection with its registration as a Public Benefit Organisation as set out in this Service Order. This Service Order is subject to the provisions of the general engagement letter dated 26 May 2010 including the Terms and Conditions attached thereto, which forms an integral part of this Service Order and which is incorporated by reference and which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Service Order.

This Service Order does not include any service not specifically stated herein. However, we would be pleased to discuss any additional services that you may require, with you.

Scope of our assistance

You have requested us to assist you with the registration of Ubuntu Addiction Community Trust as a Public Benefit Organisation in terms of the provisions of section 30 of the Income Tax Act, so that Ubuntu Addiction Community Trust will be able to issue tax certificates in terms of section 18A of the Income Tax Act.

Estimated fee

We estimate that we will incur approximately R5,000 (excluding VAT and disbursements) in providing the assistance described in "Scope of our assistance" above. Should it become apparent that we may exceed this estimate, we will discuss this with you. Conversely, should we incur less fees than estimated, we will bill you only for the actual fees incurred. Please note that this estimate does not include any assistance other than that specifically set out in "Scope of our assistance" above. Any additional assistance will be billed at our standard hourly rates.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned should you require any further information.
